Benefits

Salumi Italiani offers both domestic and Imported high quality cured meats. This authentic Coppa is slow-cured in the Piacenza region, following rigorously the ancient working method: dry salting, addition of a few spices and prolonged natural air-curing. The Coppa is then sliced and packed in an USDA inspected facility and packaged in MAP trays. Since this product is sliced in the US, our customers are ensured the freshest quality product with an excellent shelf life. Coppa has a delicate texture and a flavor profile that can range from mildly spicy and sweet to hot and robust. These attributes make it a popular choice for classic Italian sandwiches. The carefully slow aging process produces a finished product that can be sliced thin with ease and melts on your tongue as you enjoy it. Try our coppa with grilled vegitables, warm crusty bread, mustards, and your favorite red wine.
