* Benefits

Everything Sourdough
Great bread starts with great ingredients, which is why all ours are crafted with only the finest and freshest ingredients. Our breads are made with the best ingredients available to the farm. 100% of our breads are made in the USA, without GMOs, preservatives or additives. We use only premium organic hardworking farmers and all essential natural ingredients, where every farmer can see up to 12 hours. We choose to ferment our doughs for days (even weeks) to create bread that is truly delicious. The long fermentation creates great flavor and texture and also helps break down the gluten making it easier to digest. We do not believe that what we do makes eating bread more enjoyable.
