139490 - Butter With Sea Salt

Making cultured butter is much like making wine, you want to ferment your cream like your grapes, slowly, to produce the best aromas. The longer you culture the better.

* Benefits

Deliciously cultured, ridiculously creamy butter made from fresh cream. Our expert buttermakers carefully add live bacterial cultures to fresh cream. The cream ferments overnight; by morning, it's thickened and wonderful notes of buttermilk and hazelnuts have developed. The longer you culture the better.
