

Pio Tosini
34838 - Prosciutto Legato

Prosciutto di Parma made by a forth generation family producer. Cured a minimum of 20 months. They use less salt than their competitors which in turn means their legs need a longer curing time, the end result is a sweeter more delicate tasting ham.

* Benefits

Pio Tosini is family owned and operated for four generations. They are one of the most credible and sought after producers of Parma ham by the Italian domestic market. They have been in operation for over 80 years. This delectable prosciutto is sweet to the palate and is cured in the town of Langhirano, Italy and bears the honorable mark of the Consorzio del Prosciutto di Parma. The Consorzio sets the minimum standards to be able to qualify for this mark and Pio Tosini far exceeds each standard. Their whole process starts with strict selection of the highest possible quality raw pork. Each piece is hand salted and cured for longer than the Consorzio requires. Instead of 13 months, they cure for a minimum of 17 months. We import legs 20-25 months aged. The extra aging allows for slow and even salt penetration and assures the sweetness of the ham.

Handling Suggestions

Keep refrigerated

Serving Suggestions

Slice thin and serve with alongside seasonal fruit, Lambrusco wine, pilsner, bread sticks or baguette, and a mild cheese. Pio Tosini's delicate and sweet flavors allow the product to shine on a standalone charcuterie plate.

Prep & Cooking Suggestions

Cut off the outer skin before placing on a slicer and slicing thin. Do not remove the white fat...this gives the ham the sweet flavor.
