* Benefits

The incomparable origin of Sant Aniol Volcanic Natural Mineral Water gives it unique characteristics with excellent quality and an unequalled degree of purity, something that has been ratified by different international awards. Our strict quality control and our production process exempt of human contact, allows us to guarantee that both the extraction and bottling process are free of contaminants, so that the natural mineral water we offer on the market is in its purest state. Sant Aniol has a strong environmental commitment, and all our bottling takes place only using 100% green energy. Proudly we have just launched the first line using only 100% recycled plastic, 500 DROPS, reducing 75% CO2 emissions. Our Volcanic Spirit is present in some of the finest hotels and restaurants not only in Spain, but all around the world, since we have been exporting for over 15 years with our main markets being as far as Japan, The United States, China, UK and Australia.
