* Benefits

The Schaller & Weber Uncured Beef Salami comes from Ferdinand Schallers training in the art of curing and smoking meats nearly a century ago. In a market saturated with hundreds of different styles of pork salami this item is a true standout. The smoking and drying processes weve stuck to for 80 years accentuate the bold flavor of the beef. Its a rare style, and salami-lovers know we make it better than anyone. In the early days, our salamis were curing from the ceiling of our shop. 80 years later the salami is cured offsite, but you can still count on our Uncured Beef Salami to deliver great taste and please any palate. In fact, the only real change is that its now all natural
