* Benefits

Zeigler Honey Company has been harvesting and packaging 100% pure raw, natural, unfiltered honey since 1935. Located in the deep south, our bees create their golden goodness from the bountiful and diverse flora. Wildflower Honey is a delicious amber honey made from multifloral sources found in the southern parts of Georgia. Zeigler's Wildflower Honey is pure, raw, and unfiltered, just as the bees prepared it. Nothing is added to create this delightfully sweet honey. The multifloral, amber honey is a highly desirable honey. Zeigler's Wildflower Honey is raw, meaning it has not been pasteurized. The pure taste sets Zeigler's Wildflower honey apart from filtered, pasteurized honey sold in the mass market. Eat a spoonful of Zeigler's Wildflower honey for health benefits or use the Wildflower Honey to sweeten foods and drinks. A jar of Zeigler's Wildflower Honey is a perfect tabletop staple to be used with breakfast, lunch, or dinner.
