

Idyll Farms
845 - Idyll Puck

A pasteurized goat cheese made by Idyll Farms in northern MI, using the farms own seasonal milk. The name (gris means gray in French) comes from the gray vegetable ash that runs through the cheeses center and helps the edible rind to grow.

* Benefits

Idyll Puck, named on account of being the same size and shape as a hockey puck, is made from fresh Idyll Farms pasture raised Certified Humane Alpine farmstead goat milk. It is surface ripened and ash coated. It has a smooth, fluffy texture and mild, lemony flavor with an edible wrinkly rind that develops a deliciously runny layer underneath the rind as it ages that we call the cream line. Elegantly packaged in a clear mini cave that protects the delicate rind and allows the cheese to breathe and evolve. Regenerative farming practices. Gluten free. Gently pasteurized. Cave- aged. 1st place American Cheese Society 2019.
