* Benefits

Legend has it that hundreds of years ago the inhabitants of the valley suspected the red devil in a cave hidden in the Toggenburg mountains. No one dared even come close to the cave. The fear of scaring off the devil was great. The cheese cellar of the Gntensperger cheese dairy is not inhabited by the devil, but by an enormously good cheese that matures for seven months. When the red devil steps out of his cheese cellar cave, the little devil tickles the taste buds with his trident. Is made according to an old Gntensperger family recipe with its own lactic acid cultures.
