* Benefits

Not all bakeries are created equal. Vastly different products require different equipment, ingredients, and expertise, so the best artisan bakeries tend to operate within a niche. That specialization is part of what makes their products great. But that leaves kitchen managers, culinary teams, and purchasing agents having to deal with many different bakeries to source everything they need. Until now. Classic City Bakeries streamlines this process by partnering with our extensive and growing network of bakeries, allowing us to provide the best bread products in every category. You decide what you want to serve and we take care of the rest. No headaches, no hassles. Just exceptional baked goods. 6 bags of 12.
